BRIAN & MICHELLE DAVID started Envision NYC in 2017, a ministry of the Christian & Missionary Alliance (C&MA) that develops missional leaders in and for unreached diaspora communities. Their family transitioned to NYC in 2017 after working in Senegal with the C&MA for nearly a decade. They traded lots of sand and lingering hours sipping tea and talking with neighbors for the fast-paced city life with West African immigrants who live in two worlds...America and their home country. These days they can be found teaching ESL, sharing chronological biblical stories with interested individuals, developing interns & immersion teams, and enjoying the diversity of NYC. Before moving to NYC, they served in Saint-Louis, Senegal with the C&MA from 2008-2017. They were involved in church planting in close partnership with a local church whose vision is to minister among the local Wolof people primarily using health, education, and chronological Bible storying to demonstrate the love, truth and power of Jesus, and at this point there may be approximately 300 followers of Jesus among the 5 million Wolof people of Senegal.
